Dog registration and explation income enables Council to undertake animal management and public safety, recreational opportunities for pets and their owners and educational materials. Examples include:

User friendly dog-off leash parks;
Animal Management Officers who are trained in Animal Behaviour management techniques; An identification process for all dogs which allows lost or injured dogs to be reunited with their owners;

Support By Law Control;

Provide an effective communication process to dog owners and the general public;

• Dog Pound;

Education Programs;

Support of dog obedience programs; and 12% of registration fees is paid to the Dog & Cat management Board. The board funds welfare organisations, including animal welfare league and RSPCA, provides training for dog management officers and produces educational information for Council to distribute to the community.
